TRADING INCOME

As a result of a number of queries raised on catering prices the Committee feel it appropriate at this time to bring to the notice of members the Clubs general pricing policy.

In general it is Club policy to separate the income arising from Subscriptions from that generated by Trading.

Subscriptions are used to finance the running of the Club and cover such overheads as Office and maintenance staff costs, electricity, consumables, insurance, land tax, repairs and maintenance, swimming pool upkeep and other similar costs.

Trading income is used to cover all associated expenditure and the surplus is put towards development of the Club facilities. For a considerable period the targets set have been an overall gross return of 40% for trading which after deducting applicable overheads has given around a 10% surplus for improvements.

Many members point out that the Club is a non-profit making establishment. This is correct in that, as we have indicated above, there is no objective of creating an annual surplus. The amount and degree of improvement of the Clubs facilities depends on trading profit and the surpluses arising from the modest target set have been used for that purpose. In adjusting trading prices the object has not been to increase the surplus percentage but to maintain it by keeping up with the increases in costs. Members are aware that the costs of food have increased gradually but considerably during the last two years and more recently the costs of local beers and imported spirits have risen as a result of the new taxes, shipping costs and exchange rates. The main increase in trading overheads have been staff and cooking gas costs.

It is Club policy to hold food and drink prices at as reasonable a level as possible. This will continue to be done but members are reminded that the loans being obtained to finance the developments agreed in the long range plan will be repaid mainly from the net trading income.

EVENTS FOR JUNE 1978

We begin the 1978-79 series of monthly programmes with a cello and piano recital to be given by Ross Pople and Michael Freyhan, at the Alliance Francaise on June 7th at 8.00 p.m. Ross Pople is the principal cellist of the BBC Symphony Orchestra, which makes him one of the top three cellists in Britain, and he is fast becoming one of the best known recitalists in the country. He was born in New Zealand, and by the age of 16 had won national music competitions, become a frequent broadcaster, achieved a record score (98%) in his LRSM examinations and won a scholarship to London's Royal Academy of Music. Since then he has worked with Andre Navarra, Yehudi Menuhin (both as a co-recitalist and as a section leader in the latter's Festival Orchestra) and toured extensively. The programme for Bangkok comprises Sonatas by Boccherini, Beethoven, Brahms, pieces by Schumann, and the witty and easily accepted Divertimento by the present-day British composer Elizabeth Maconchy.

Tickets for this concert will be on sale at the British Council Library in Siam Square, and at the Alliance Francaise on the night.

FUTURE EVENTS

The British Council is presently negotiating or finalising arrangements for the following:-

AMATEUR DRAMATIC GROUP

Those interested in taking part in the proposed new group are advised to try telephoning 234-1981. They are likely to receive a more positive response from Steve McCall than from the chinese laundry operator whose telephone number was published in error last month. Sorry!

(Any member who did get an offer from the wrong number is advised to accept with caution as they could end up as the rear legs of a Chinese dragon!)

WORLD (FOOTBALL) CUP

It has possibly escaped the notice of most except the most ardent Scotland fans and Punch readers that the final series of World Cup 1978 matches is about to be played in South America this month.

Readers of Punch who have been following the adventures, or misadventures, of Jimmy and Tadger on "the Road to Argentina" must hope that after being stranded in mid-Atlantic, arrested in Cuba, deported to the Horn of Africa, interviewed by President Amin and grilled in Moscow, those two keen supporters at least arrived safely by June.

In the meantime the reviews of participating national teams released by the news agencies appear to have overlooked Scotland's prospects. One article published in the local press, attributed to Reuters, was entitled "Scottish 'Tartan Army' Worst Feared". In it there was not a mention of football; only alarms of trouble, as if Wallace himself was due to lead a pack of highland supporters into the southern hemisphere.

Scotland are competing in Group 4 with Holland, Iran and Peru. One hopes, despite the results of last month's home international matches, that the team selected to travel to Argentina will keep UK chances alive through to the final.

A colour TV set will be in the Main Bar for those interested in viewing throughout June. We understand that the first game and the final will be broadcast live via satellite on 2 June and 26 June between 1 a.m. and 2 a.m. local time. From 5 June videotape replays of other matches will be shown on different TV channels from 8.30 p.m. each night until the full match programme is complete. As usual which matches, on which channel and at what actual time will be subject to the whims of local programme organisers who no doubt will keep us in suspense until the last, or even 30 minutes after the last, moment.

Should Scotland get into the Final, toilet rolls, tartan scarves and rattles will be provided free of charge. Members requiring specialist and associated accoutrements such as Tam O'Shanter, flick knives, bicycle chains and bower boots are requested to provide their own. The set itself will be encased in steel mesh. A raffle will be held: first prize one week's holiday in the outer Hebrides (December off season) and the second prize: two weeks holiday in the outer Hebrides (January off season). A porridge breakfast will be served at 3.30 a.m., if the Clubhouse is still standing.

DARTS NEWS

In two games during the month the Lilywhites failed to field a full team, on one occasion raising a belated 6 after some phrantic phoning and the next week mounting a fine-Lilywhite challenge at what once was a favourite venue. Admittedly, the rules of the current league make it more difficult for us in that only Lilywhites registered before the start of the league are eligible to play, unlike in previous leagues when we could sign on players as necessary during the league. Nevertheless it is disappointing, never having failed to raise a full team for over four years, to have it happen on two consecutive Thursdays. Regrettably it occurred after a series of defeats and Bangkok dartists are bound to draw what hopefully is an erroneous conclusion. Your favourite team have a reputation for promoting the finer aspects of the sport of Nais in Bangkok; perhaps it was merely fortuitous that only 5 of our 12 card-carrying players could turn up on those two occasions.

MATCH REPORTS

The second game of the 10th league, our first at home, was against 20 Hotel and found the Lilywhites in a more determined mood than in the previous week. The singles were evenly divided after a fine opening victory by Ian Gadsden.

Robin Polglase and Nai VI put the club ahead in the first doubles and hopes were high, but were soon shattered when the remaining doubles and both the triples went to the Hoteliers without much serious opposition from the Lilywhites. A consolation point was picked up in the 1001 to give victory to the lucky (?) opposition by a margin of 11 to 6.

A depleted team assembled at the Joker Club to cross darts with ebullient arch-rivals B.T. Audio. Against league rules the sporting Audiomen allowed us to recruit one of our two supporters to make a match of it, provided "Adrian" (as Charley was known) didn't win any games. Thus demoralised the Lilywhites had little chance of victory and it showed. Your scribe picked up our sole singles point and tungsten equipped new Lilywhite Dave Abotomey, C.D. and Ian picked up two points in the doubles, but by then victory was already beyond our grasp. Honours were divided in the triples but certainly not in the team game which the Audiomen cleaned up without difficulty. Dave threw three of the Club's four tons, a very creditable debut.

Bobby's Arms was the venue for the captainless Lilywhites' match against high-flying CPA, current favourites for league honours. Ray Roberts and Ian, in sizzling form, won our only two points in the singles, in which the Lilywhites should have done better, several apparently unassailable leads being squandered by lack of finishing power (or nerves). A few Amarits later, in the doubles, Ray and John Bennett and the Derby Duo put the Club ahead 6-4 but the Chartered Bank all-stars faltered, allowing the airmen to level. A few more Amarits and the triples and team game were conceded by a possibly over-fuelled and certainly demoralised Club team.

Solace was sought in neighbouring watering holes and the fortunes of the Lilywhites were generally agreed to have rock-bottomed.

Our final match of the period under review was at home against AIS. A meeting of two of the founder teams of the Bangkok league. Both teams were without previous success in the current league (and not much in previous leagues either). Somebody had to break their duck. Roger Henry in his debut game opened well for the Club scoring two tons in the process but we finished the singles 4-2 down. A rare event followed when the Lilywhites won all three doubles and needed only one more point from the remaining triples and team game to ensure victory. Oggying at fever pitch, the Lilywhites surged to victory as the Derby Duo + the Great Gadsden provided the clincher in the second triples. Ever sportsmen, we let AIS pick up the 1001 to give the Club a 10-7 win.

DARTIST DEPARTS

With regret we record the departure of Bryan Cornish, famed underwater dartist and banker, who opened his Lilywhite career by demolishing ace marksman Lek Kledpee, opening and closing the 1001, scoring several tons in the process, in the Lilywhite's most devastating victory over Rendezvous, 9th June 1977 at 9.15 p.m. We wish Bryan and Margaret every success in their new posting.

DARTS DIARY

Matches continue on Thursday nights, practice sessions on Saturday late afternoons and Sunday evenings. The Captain's Cup will be played for in July. All members are eligible to enter for this prestigious trophy, presented by Ian Gadsden and currently held by Brian Heath.

Can the cup be wrested from the diminutive Derbyshire dartist? It is also rumoured that the darts section will challenge the squash section to a squash/darts contest with valuable prizes. Various other challenges are programmed as part of the Club's diamond jubilee celebrations during July. Watch the notice board and next month's newsletter for further news.

SWIMMING SECTION

Due to an increasing number of families transferring out of Bangkok in recent months our swimming section is low on numbers. Galas are still held the first Sunday of each month and the children always enjoy the competition no matter how small the numbers. Parents are urged to encourage their children to come along and swim against their friends. Training continues 4 nights a week. These sessions are open to any swimmers who would like to practise their strokes and try to accumulate 25000 metres and gain a T-shirt and badge in recognition. Even though we are without the expertise of Meike de Heer for the next month or so, the parents who are giving their time to supervise the children swimming and record their lengths are more than able to help with any stroke difficulty but more importantly will provide plenty of encouragement for those who are willing to try. Do bring your children along from 4.30-6.00 p.m. Mon. Tue. Thu. & Fri. - we need you!!

Over several months many children have swum and recorded their lengths and so earned their swimming group T-shirt and badge after 25000 metres.

Those completed are:

Warren Hignett	Joanna Rogers
William Jamieson	Carole Took
Apple Gwilliam	Alexandra Weymouth
Simon Brown	Karena Bennett
Andrew Rogers	Paul Westerduin
Justin Brown	Irene Westerduin
Carole Commerford	Anita Panton
Alexander Rogers	Miles Ray

Louisa Took is the first of the 6 & under age group to finish and deserves special congratulations.

Sunday 4 June will be the next swimming gala - 11.30 pool-side. Do come and bring your children and stay to give them all encouragement.
